

ST. THOMAS SCHOOL, LONI
SESSION: 2023-24
LITERARY CLUB INAUGURATION REPORT

“Reading is essential for those who seek to rise above ordinary.” Jim Rohn

9th October 2023- The Literary Club of St. Thomas School, Loni was officially inaugurated on 9th October 2023, with great enthusiasm and excitement. The event marked a significant milestone for the school, as it aimed to promote the love for literature and foster creativity among the students.

The event started with a prayer by the students of French language followed by the ceremonial lamp lighting.

An official welcome was rendered by the Literary Head boy, Ratinoor, of class XII who expressed the school's commitment to nurturing literary talent among its students. A graceful welcome dance by Nandini of class VII mesmerized the audience with her elegant movements. Students were led in pledge by Literary Captain Dharvi of class IX motivating the students to be active and avid readers. All club members, including students, teachers, and staff, took a pledge to uphold the values of the Literary Club and actively participate in its activities.

Reverend Father Saji Abraham, the special guest of the day – Ms. Archana Singh, Principal of the school, Ms. Shali Nair and headmistress Ma'am Priyanka R. Sharma cut a beautifully crafted ribbon, symbolizing the official inauguration of the Literary Club.

Reverend Father Saji Abraham blessed the occasion with his presence and congratulated and motivated the students to take further activities under the Literary club.

The Guest of Honour, Mrs. Archana Singh, a renowned author and literary figure, delivered an inspiring speech. She shared her personal journey in the world of literature and emphasized the power of words in shaping one's thoughts and aspirations.

There were many performances from several students from classes VI to XI who took the stage to recite poems, share their thoughts on reading and its importance, and perform power-packed street play performances on the importance of books even in digital life. Their performances showcased the diverse talents within the school's student body.

The Principal of the school, Ms. Shali Nair, congratulated all on the occasion and motivated the students to express themselves and develop the zeal to improve as a writer.

Mrs. Archana Singh engaged in an interactive session with students, answering their questions and providing valuable insights into the world of literature and writing.

The inauguration ceremony of the Literary Club at St. Thomas School, Loni was a resounding success. It served as a platform to ignite the passion for literature among the students and provided an opportunity for them to learn from an accomplished author like Mrs. [Guest's Name].

The club is poised to become a hub of literary activities, where students can explore their creative potential, enhance their communication skills, and develop a deep appreciation for literature. The event concluded with a sense of excitement and anticipation for the many literary adventures that lie ahead.
