

DID YOU KNOW???

The 1999 Kargil War drew out the best in Indian soldiers. Commander Manoj Kumar Pandey, Captain Vikram Batra, Yogender Singh Yadav and Rifleman Sanjay Kumar got the prestigious Param Veer Chakra for triumphant conquer of the top in Kargil.

DID YOU KNOW???

It is said that Captain Vikram Batra yelled “Yeh dil maange more”
which later turned into the slogan of Pepsi.

The background of the slide shows a scenic mountainous landscape. In the foreground, there are several Indian national flags (tricolor with saffron, white, and green) flying on tall poles. To the left, a portion of a red-roofed building is visible. The middle ground features a green lawn with a black lamp post. In the background, there are rugged, brownish mountains under a clear sky. A white structure is visible on a distant peak.

DID YOU KNOW ???

The Kargil war was fought for around 40-60 days under -10 degree Celsius temperature.

Bofors FH- 77B howitzers were used for the first time in war by India to fire at occupied peaks in this war.