Reading Comprehension:

It was a hot summer day. A lion was resting in the shade of tree. A little mouse lived in a hole nearby. As the mouse came out of its hole, unfortunately it rolled over the body of lion. The lion was very angry. It caught the mouse in its paw and was about to kill it when the mouse said, "I am sorry for disturbing you. But I never wanted to do so. Please pardon me. I am a small creature. But even I may be of help to you sometime in future." The lion felt amused at the words of the mouse but let it go.

After a few days, the lion was caught in a trap. It tried very hard but could not free itself. So it roared for help. The mouse heard the roar of the lion. It came rushing to the place and cut the strings of the net with its sharp teeth. The lion got free. It thanked the mouse.
